Filing a Case in the United States Tax Court

Before filing your case in the United States Tax Court, please read these instructions carefully. It is important that you properly complete your petition and submit all required documents. Please do not submit tax forms, receipts, or other types of evidence with your petition.

You can file your petition electronically on the Court's website, www.ustaxcourt.gov, by following the Court's eFiling & Case Management page to DAWSON, the Court's electronic filing and case management system. If you do not already have one, create a DAWSON account. Follow the prompts and instructions for filing a petition and accompanying required documents. For further important information and guidance, see "Guidance for Petitioners" on the Court's website or the "Information for Persons Representing Themselves Before the U.S. Tax Court" booklet available from the Tax Court.

Alternatively, you can file a petition by mailing it, along with the required documents listed below, to United States Tax Court, 400 Second Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20217. Please make sure to enclose the following items with your petition:

- 1) A copy of any Notice of Deficiency, Notice of Determination, or Final Determination the IRS sent you. Omit or redact (e.g., black out or cover) your personal information (e.g., Social Security Number, Individual Taxpayer Identification Number) on the IRS notice or determination.
- 2) Your Statement of Taxpayer Identification Number (Form 4). This is the only document that should include personal information (e.g., Social Security Number, Individual Taxpayer Identification Number).
- 3) The Request for Place of Trial (Form 5).
- 4) The $60 filing fee, payable by check, money order, or other draft, to the "Clerk, United States Tax Court," or, if applicable, the application for waiver of filing fee. If the filing fee is not paid or waived, the case will be dismissed.

Small Tax Case or Regular Tax Case

You can choose to have your case conducted as either a small tax case or a regular case by checking the appropriate box in paragraph 4 of the petition form (Form 2). “Small tax cases” are handled under simpler, less formal procedures than regular cases. However, the Tax Court’s decision in a small tax case cannot be appealed to a Court of Appeals by the IRS or by the taxpayer(s). If you do not check either box, then the Court will file your case as a regular case.

Only certain disputes are eligible to be filed as small tax cases. You cannot file your case as a small tax case if you seek review of a whistleblower or a certification action. You may file your case as a small tax case if your dispute is one of the eligible actions listed in paragraph 1 of the petition form (Form 2) and meets certain dollar limits, which vary slightly depending on the type of action you seek to have the Tax Court review:

- 1) If you seek review of a Notice of Deficiency, the amount of the deficiency (including any additions to tax or penalties) that you dispute cannot exceed $50,000 for any year.
- 2) If you seek review of a Notice of Determination Concerning Collection Action, the total amount of unpaid tax cannot exceed $50,000 for all years combined.
- 3) If you seek review of a Notice of Final Determination for [Full/Partial] Disallowance of Interest Abatement Claim (or at least 180 days have passed since you filed a claim for interest abatement and the IRS has failed to send you a Notice of Final Determination), the amount of the claimed abatement in dispute cannot exceed $50,000.
- 4) If you seek review of a Notice of Determination of Worker Classification, the amount in dispute cannot exceed $50,000 for any calendar quarter.
- 5) If you seek review of a Notice of Determination Concerning Relief From Joint and Several Liability Under Section 6015 (or at least 6 months have passed since you filed a request for spousal relief and the IRS has not issued a Notice of Determination to you), the amount of spousal relief sought cannot exceed $50,000 for all years combined.
